What law school did you attend?

Did you concentrate in a particular subject area in law school? If so, in what area?

What other degrees do you hold and what have been your specific areas of interest surrounding those academic degrees?

What is the name of your law firm, what is its size, and what is the focus of its practice(s)?

How many years have you practiced law?

What are your goals for the development of your practice?

What is your particular interest in business law?

In what areas of law or types of transactions have you practiced so far?

If you are practicing in an area of business law, what additional skills do you want to learn or what additional knowledge base do you want to develop?

What do you think you could add to any of the research projects we have identified so far in Business Law Fellows? See the Fact Sheet.

Do you have an idea for a different research project related to business law which you would like to pursue? If so, please describe.

Is there anything else you would like us to know in evaluating your application?
